

I don't think any government organization should be controlling content of the airways...especially content that I choose to pay for. NAB should ask themselves why XM exists. Obviously NAB isn't meeting the needs of certain consumers. Their efforts & money would be well spent to focus on THEIR content not XM's content.